

COMMUNITY SNAPSHOT

COURTESY PHOTO

Carreon Scholars

The Dr. Carreon Foundation awarded $100,000 in scholarships during the foundation's 20th awards banquet Saturday at La Quinta Resort & Club. Recipients and their high schools are: Armando Alvarado, Jessica Campos, Juan Flores and Sophie Rapicault, all of Cathedral City High; Beatriz Andrade, David Hernandez, Marlene Lopez, Lucy Magana and Angelica Martinez of Coachella Valley High; Rubi Becerril, Yazmin Hernandez and Yvette Rodriguez of Desert Hot Springs; Lizbeth Abarca, Araceli Beltran, Stephany Lopez, Oneyda Osuna, Abraham Paredes and Mildred Santarriaga of Desert Mirage; Robert Patino and Celia Tavarez of Indio; and Marco Tiznado of Palm Springs.

la quinta

Carreon foundation awards scholarships

The Reynaldo J. Carreon M.D. Foundation awarded $100,000 in student scholarships during the foundation's 20th Anniversary Celebration and Student Awards Banquet Saturday.

The celebration took place at the La Quinta Resort & Club.

Student scholarships range from $2,500 for local students attending College of the Desert to $5,000 for students attending a four-year university. The $100,000 included a $50,000 match from Pathways to Success.

Scholarships are awarded to students of Mexican ancestry who were involved in the community, maintained a 3.0 GPA and demonstrated leadership skills.

For a list of the 2011 Carreon Scholars:
www.carreonfoundation.org

— SONYA ENGLISH